

Privacy Notice for Grange Park School

This notice explains what personal data (information) we hold about you, how we collect, how we use and may share information about you. We are required to give you this information under data protection law.

Who are we?

Grange Park School collects, uses and is responsible for certain personal information about you. When we do so we are regulated under the United Kingdom General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) and we are responsible as 'controller' of that personal information for the purposes of those laws. Our Data Protection Officer is Invicta Law (Contact dpo@csltd.org.uk or 01622392000)

The personal information we collect and use

Information collected by us

In the course of providing education we collect the following personal information when you provide it to us:

- personal identifiers and contacts (such as name, unique pupil number, contact details and address)
- characteristics (such as ethnicity, language etc)
- safeguarding information (such as court orders and professional involvement)
- free school meal eligibility
- special educational needs (including the needs and ranking)
- medical and administration (such as doctors information, child health, dental health, allergies, medication and dietary requirements)
- attendance (such as sessions attended, number of absences, absence reasons and any previous schools attended)
- assessment and attainment (such as key stage 1 and phonics results, post 16 courses enrolled for and any relevant results)
- National Curriculum assessment results

We also obtain personal information from other sources as follows:

- Personal information, special category information, assessment results and SEN information from schools that you previously attended
- Service support and involvement information from KCC teams working to improve outcomes for children and young people (such as SEND, Early Help, Free School Meals, Admissions)

How we use your personal information

We use your personal information to:

- support pupil learning
- monitor and report on pupil progress

- moderate teacher assessment judgements
- provide appropriate pastoral care and support services
- assess the quality of our services
- comply with the law regarding data sharing
- support you to decide what to do after you leave school
- support or improve educational provision
- ensure no children are missing education
- support children at risk of permanent exclusion
- support the primary, secondary and in-year admissions process
- safeguard children and young people
- improve the education and services we provide
- to meet the statutory duties placed upon us for the Department for Education (DfE) data collections

How long your personal data will be kept

We will hold your personal information securely and retain it from the child/young person's date of birth until they reach the age of 25, after which the information is archived or securely destroyed.

Reasons we can collect and use your personal information

We collect and use pupil information under section 537A of the Education Act 1996, section 83 of the Children Act 1989, and to carry out tasks in the public interest.

If we need to collect special category (sensitive) personal information, we rely upon reasons of substantial public interest (equality of opportunity or treatment).

If there is processing or sharing that relies on your consent, we will make this clear to you and ensure we seek your consent.

Collecting pupil information

We collect pupil information via a Baseline information form and meeting, parent / carer updating Arbor (our MI system), Common Transfer File (CTF) and secure file transfer from previous school which is then scanned onto our system.

Pupil data is essential for the schools' operational use. Whilst the majority of pupil information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it requested on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the data protection legislation, we will inform you at the point of collection, whether you are required to provide certain pupil information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Who we share your personal information with

- Department for Education (DfE) (statutory for school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring) and other government agencies and local authorities as required (e.g. to resolve funding queries)
- Kent County Council teams working to improve outcomes for children and young people (please see KCC's Pupil Information privacy notice for further details)
- Commissioned providers of local authority services (such as education services)
- Schools or colleges that you may attend after leaving us
- Local forums with schools and KCC representatives which support in-year fair access processes and support managed moves between schools
- Local multi-agency forums which provide SEND advice, support and guidance (such as Local Inclusion Forum Team (LIFT))
- Partner organisations signed up to the Kent & Medway Information Sharing Agreement, where necessary, which may include Police, school nurses, doctors and mental health workers and Kent Community Health NHS Foundation Trust
- Schools in our local collaboration, to enable the moderation of pupil assessment outcomes, to support collaborative working through joint analysis, and ensure children continue to receive appropriate education provision
- KCC has to share information with external moderators (teachers with recent relevant experience) of end of key stage assessments, to meet statutory requirements from the Standards & Testing Agency (STA)
- The Education People (TEP) who are commissioned by KCC to provide Education services for KCC including most of the CFIS services
- Our third-party MI - Arbor where consent and access has been given
- Contracted providers of services such as school photographers where consent has been given

We will share personal information with law enforcement or other authorities if required by applicable law.

We are required to share information about our pupils with KCC and the Department for Education (DfE) under section 3 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

Once our pupils reach the age of 13, we also pass pupil information to our local authority and / or provider of youth support services as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996.

This enables them to provide services as follows:

- careers advisers

The information shared is limited to the child's name, address and date of birth. However where a parent or guardian provides their consent, other information relevant to the provision of youth support services will be shared. This right is transferred to the child / pupil once they reach the age 16.

Aged 14+ qualifications

For pupils enrolling for post-14 qualifications, the Learning Records Service will give us a pupil's unique learner number (ULN) and may also give us details about the pupil's learning or qualifications

Our pupils in Year 11

We also provide additional pupil information to KCC to fulfil their responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996:

- Intended destinations of pupils in Year 11 moving into Year 12
- Course offers for pupils in Year 11 moving into Year 12 (September Guarantee)
- Information for Kent Choices4U (careers advice and course application website)

Data is securely transferred to the youth support service via a password protected secure portal. For more information about services for young people, please visit our local authority website.

Our pupils aged 16+

We will share information about pupils aged 16+ with our local authority as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996.

KCC has a legal responsibility to track all young people up to the age of 19 (and young adults with learning difficulties or disabilities up to the age of 25). The purpose of collecting this information is to assist the planning of education and training for young people and the support services they require. KCC will inform us of your current activity once you have left the school and we will also work with them to ensure they hold accurate records about what you are doing after you leave school. This is in relation to education, training, employment with training you may be undertaking and whether you are NEET (not in Education, Employment or Training). Some of this information is then shared with the DfE who use the information to plan at a national level.

This information enables KCC to provide and arrange:

- post-16 education and training provision
- youth support services
- careers advice and guidance

In addition, the DfE advises that schools collect and maintain accurate destination data for each pupil for at least three years after they leave school, so that they can assess their success in supporting their pupils take up education or training which offer good long term prospects. To do this we will seek your consent separately.

The National Pupil Database (NPD)

The NPD is owned and managed by the DfE and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the DfE. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

We are required by law, to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

The DfE may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The DfE has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data. Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested: and
- the arrangements in place to store and handle the data

To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.
